TO MISS JULIA GRANGLE.

Bright be the place of thy soul.

COMPOSED BY

HENRY ROBYN.

OP: 56.

3½

Published by BOLLMAN & SCHATZMAN. St. Louis Mo.

BRIGHT BE THE PLACE OF THY SOUL.

Composed by

HENRY ROBYN.

Op: 56.

VOICE

PIANO

Con molto espressione.

mf

373. 4.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1868, by Bollman & Schatzman, in the Clerk's Office of the Eastern District Court of Mo.

1. Bright be the place of thy soul! No love - li - er spi - rit than
2. Light be the turf of thy tomb! May its ver - dure like em - e - ralds molto legato.

thine E'er burst from its mor - tal con - trol, In the
be: There should'nt be the sha - dow of gloom, In - - - -

Ped. * Ped. *

orbs of the bless - ed to shine. On earth thou wert all aught that re - minds us of thee. Young flow - ers and an

Ped. *

but di - vine, As thy soul shall immor - tal - ly be;
ev - er-green tree, May spring from the spot of thy rest:

dolce.

And our But nor

dolce.

sor - row may cease to re - pine,
cy - press nor yew let us see;

When we know that thy God is with
For why should we mourn for the

rall:

rall:

thee.
blest?

a tempo.